Dear [REDACTED]

I have yet to receive your confirmation that your email of 29 August constitutes a formal decision made by or under the authority of the Data Protection Commissioner. Could you please confirm this immediately and let me know how this decision can be appealed.

I would also be obliged if you could tell me precisely with reference to provisions of the GDPR and Data Protection Act how you consider my SAR to be "invalid".

I look forward to hearing from you as a matter of the utmost urgency.

I am quite concerned that my complaint has been dismissed without proper legal basis which appears to be the case here.

Many thanks
