Comments :

Dear Mr [REDACTED],

I refer to the matter of your access request to the Department of Employment and Social Protection (DEASP) and to previous correspondence herein, resting with your email of 23 August 2019.

In this regard, please note that the position remains as communicated to you in our previous [REDACTED] August 2019 and your subsequent telephone conversation with [REDACTED] of this office. To reiterate, based on the wording of [REDACTED] to the DEASP, it does not constitute a valid access request for the personal data of your children. The request specifically seeks data associated with [REDACTED] state you had filled out; in your telephone conversation with [REDACTED] and your most recent written correspondence you stated that the [REDACTED] no such forms completed in your name. Accordingly, if you wish to pursue this matter, you must revert to the DEASP clarifying that you wish to make an access request on behalf of your children for personal data that the department holds in relation to them.

In relation to your complaint regarding the DEASP's legitimate grounds for processing your children's data, please note that this office has assigned case reference C-19-8-846 and will communicate with you under separate cover in this regard.

I hope the above is of some assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Higher Executive Officer
